

Organisational development

The M2C Institute provides individual support in issues of organizational development, optimising, training and coaching for your company or your start-up. We offer you individual consulting for your company in the following core areas as workshops or scientific lectures:

- Management consulting and coaching
- Organisational development
- Virtual teams – structuring of virtual team working processes

- Self-directed working – motivation of employees
- Designing innovative processes
- Intercultural management
- Stress management
- Work-Life-Balance
- Media supported communication
- Design of network research and network projects

Consulting can be held in German, English, French, Norse, Spanish.

Our clients

SMEs and freelancer from the first year after set up

International companies

Young entrepreneurs (from the first year after set up) who want to reorganise and/or optimise their company

Women (with migration background) in the setting up phase

Companies directed by businesswomen

Small craft business

University graduates (Humanities, Sciences etc.) in the setting up phase

You as the manager are unique and so is each business and its objectives. We offer you individual consulting concepts, tailored for you and your requirements.

Reimbursement

50-100% of the fees for consultancy and workshops can be funded by the Federal County of Bremen, the Federal Government or the European Union. We will support you in finding the appropriate solution.

Federal grants

Under certain conditions public funding for consultancy and workshops can be claimed.

Funded are company founders (Bremen and Bremerhaven) with up to 800 € by the Bremen Senate for Industry and Harbour.

Funded are companies from one year after set up with 50% (former Western federal counties plus Berlin) respectively 75% (former Eastern federal counties plus Lüneburg) of consultancy fees up to the maximum costs of 1,500 €. Excluded from funding are companies which have received De Mimesis support (total volume 200,000 €) in the past three years. Workshops can be funded with up to 300 € p.p.

Please do not hesitate to contact us – we will support you throughout the application process!

Contact:

Martin Koplin

Managing Director

M2C Institut für angewandte Medienforschung und Kultur GmbH

Phone: +49-421-5905-5402

Email: koplin@m2c-bremen.de